

Green Careers Dallas

501(c)3 grassroots nonprofit with a mission to disrupt poverty through green career training and community education

What We Do

Training + Resources + Community Education

We provide:

- OSHA 10 safety
- Variety of trainings
  - Entry-level solar installation
  - Crew Lead
  - Solar for Licensed Journeyman
- Connection to employers

We partner to provide:

- Supportive services
- Employment coaching

Who We Serve

Job Seekers

- Individuals earning less than 200% of federal poverty-level income
- Returning Citizens
- Veterans
- Motivated workers pursuing long-term living wage employment

Employers

- Solar installation contractors in Dallas with entry-level living wage
- Committed to supporting hard-to-employ workers

Benefits to Employers

- Safety-OSHA 10 & Harness Training
- Soft Skills Support
- Work Opportunity Tax Credits
- Proper Use of Tools & Equipment
- Materials Handling
- Quality Wire Management
- Attention to manufacturer warranties

WOTC

Work Opportunity Tax Credit

- SNAP Recipient
- Ex-felon
- Low-income veteran
- Empowerment Zone resident
- Long-term unemployed
- Summer Youth (16 & 17)

2-Day Hands-On Learning

Solar PV Installation Overview

---

Employability Skills

---

Intro to Solar PV Systems

---

PV Modules

---

PV Mounting Systems

---

Wiring

---

Creating an Installer Toolkit

---

Other Components

---

Basic PV System Configurations

---

Safety Harnessing System

---

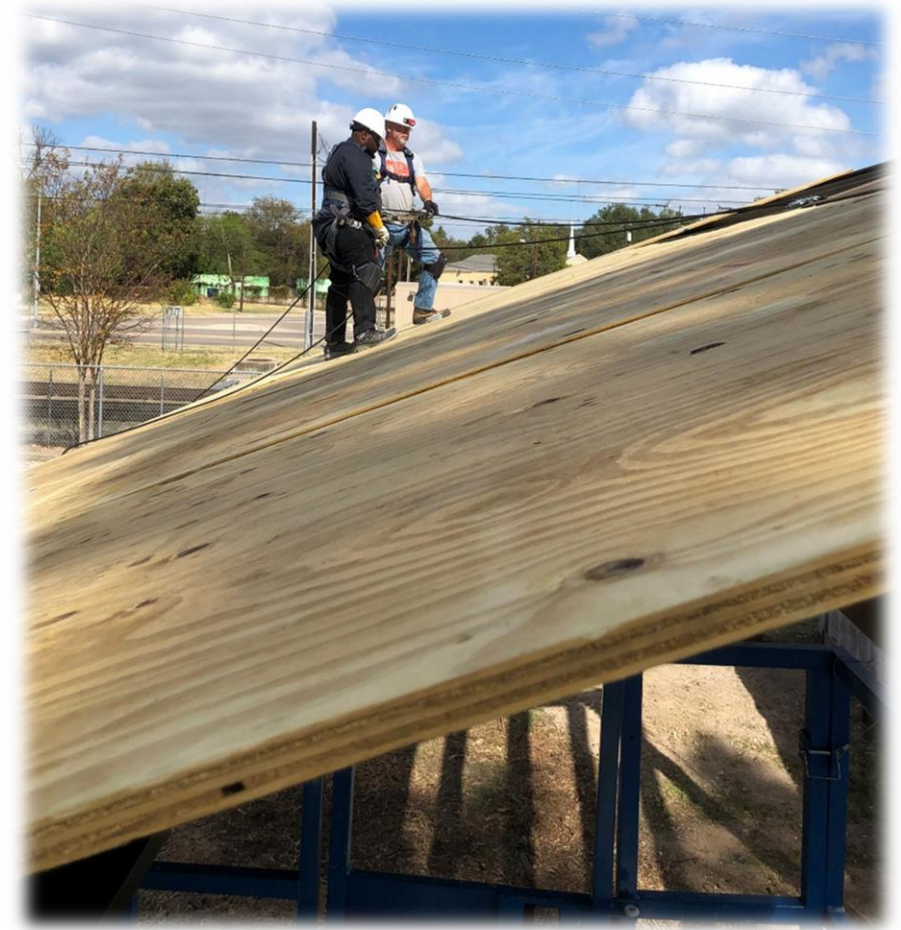

Ladder Safety

---

Training Rooftop

Real world learning experience

Sits on an urban farm in the lowest income zip code in Dallas county.

- Join our Employer Advisory Council
- Work with GCD to design a DOL solar technician apprenticeship
- Provide work opportunities for program graduates
- Buy lunch for training cohorts

GREEN CAREERS DALLAS

Solar Power For Good

Questions?

Tracy Wallace, Executive Director
tracy@greencareersdallas.org

Mark McCollom, Lead Instructor
mark@skygatesolar.com

Greencareersdallas.org
@GreenCareersDal